General Release of Liability

Contestant and Contestant's parent and/or legal guardians realize and agree that rodeo is a dangerous event. The likelihood of injury is very real and can be serious or even fatal. Large, powerful animals and heavy hardware in the rodeo arena are a recipe for all manner of accident and injury. Further, rodeo is a sport which involves competition between people. Competition sometimes, unfortunately, breeds poor sportsmanship which can lead to accidents and injury. The Jim Bowie Youth Rodeo Association is not responsible for accidents or injuries that may occur during any rodeo which it organizes. Contestant and Contestant's parents and/or legal guardians agree by their signature below that they will release and forever hold harmless the Jim Bowie Youth Rodeo Association, its officers, employees, agents or volunteers from any liability for any accident or injury, including death of a Contestant that may occur by any means, including but not limited to, acts of third parties, animals or dangerous arena conditions or the negligence of any of the officers, employees, agents or volunteers of the Jim Bowie Youth Rodeo Association, during any of its organized events.
